cocktails and conversation.

To kick off West Week festivities, Luxe co-hosted one of our cocktails and conversation events with Amadi Carpets on Tuesday, March 19. Top designers such as Peter Dunham, Christopher Grubb, Michael Berman, Carol Poet and Philip Nimmo, as well as Taconic Builders and Gary Paster Construction, were all in attendance. Known for their innovative designs, Amadi Carpets—owned by the Amadi family—entertained the attendees with live jazz music and fabulous food.
