HOT SHOP!

One of the latest hotspots on the home store front is Almont Yard, a handy nexus of "It" decorator shops clustered around one elegant, design star-throbbled courtyard (Hamish Bowles, Sally Perrin and Waldo Fernandez). And Harbinger, a brand-new jewel box of a shop that injects cutting-edge cool into a classic cottage environment, is the latest to join the ranks of shops like Nathan Turner, Claremont and Peter Dunham's Hollywood at Home. Owner/designers Joe Lucas and Parrish Chilcoat take trend-resistant finds like slipper chairs, pedestal tables, gilded frames and throw pillows, and give them just enough of a twist with graphic fabrics and unexpected touches to transform them from granny to fab. 636-A Almont Dr., West Hollywood, 310.858.6884. -A.A.M.
